PART 2—INSOLVENT COMPANIES

Division 1—Compromises with Creditors

- | | |

| Compromise proposal | 6. Any of the following persons may propose a compromise under this Division if that person has reason to believe that a company is or will be unable to pay its debts as they become due in the normal course of business— (a) the directors of the company; |
|---------------------|--|

- (b) a receiver appointed in relation to the whole or substantially the whole of the assets and undertaking of the company;
- (c) a liquidator of the company.

7. (1) The proponent must compile, in relation to each class of creditors of the company, a list of creditors known to the proponent who would be affected by the proposed compromise, setting out—

Notice of

- (a) the amount owing or estimated to be owing to each of them; and
- (b) the number of votes that each of them is entitled to cast on a resolution to approve the compromise.

(2) The proponent must give to each known creditor, the company, any receiver or liquidator, and deliver to the Registrar for registration—

- (a) notice in accordance with Schedule 2 of the intention to hold a meeting of creditors, or any 2 or more classes of creditors, for the purpose of voting on the resolution; and

 - (i) containing the name and address of the proponent and the capacity in which the proponent is acting; and
 - (ii) containing the address and telephone number to which inquiries may be directed during normal business hours; and
 - (iii) setting out the terms of the proposed compromise and the reasons for it; and specifying (where applicable) the property of the company that is available to pay creditors' claims; the duration of any moratorium period;

(2) A compromise, including any amendment, approved by creditors or a class of creditors of a company in accordance with this Division is binding on the company and on all creditors, or, if there is more than 1 class of creditors, on all creditors of that class, to whom notice of the proposal was given.

(3) If a resolution proposing a compromise, including any amendment, is put to the vote of more than 1 class of creditors, it is to be presumed, unless the contrary is expressly stated in the resolution, that the approval of the compromise, including any amendment, by each class is conditional on the approval of the compromise, including any amendment, by every other class voting on the resolution.

compromise and ending not later than 10 working days after the date on which notice was given of the result of the voting on it—

- (i) proceedings in relation to a debt owing by the company be stayed; or
- (ii) a creditor refrain from taking any other measure to enforce payment of a debt owing by the company.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1)(b) affects the right of a secured creditor during that period to take possession of, realise, or otherwise deal with, property of the company over which that creditor has a charge.

(3) The Court may order that the creditor is not bound by the compromise or make any other order that it thinks fit if the Court is satisfied, on the application of a creditor of a company who was entitled to vote on a compromise, that—

- (a) not enough notice of the meeting or of the matter required to be notified under section 7 was given to that creditor; or
- (b) there was some other material irregularity in obtaining approval of the compromise; or
- (c) in the case of a creditor who voted against the compromise, the compromise is unfairly prejudicial to that creditor, or to the class of creditors to which that creditor belongs.

(4) An application under subsection (3) must be made not later than 10 working days after the date on which notice of the result of the voting was given to the creditor.

compromise in

- (a) the company; or

- (b) a receiver appointed in relation to property of the company; or
- (c) with the leave of the Court, any creditor or shareholder of the company, make such order as the Court thinks fit with respect to the extent, if any, to which the compromise will, if the company is put into liquidation, continue in effect and be binding on the liquidator of the company.

- (2) If a compromise is approved and the company is later put into liquidation, the Court may, on the application of the liquidator or any person described in subsection (1)(b) or (c), make any order that the Court thinks fit with respect to the extent, if any, to which the compromise will continue in effect and be binding on the liquidator of the company.

12. Unless the Court orders otherwise, the costs incurred in organising and conducting a meeting of creditors for the purpose of voting on a proposed compromise—

- (a) must be met by the company; or
- (b) if incurred by a receiver or a liquidator, are a cost of the receivership or liquidation; or
- (c) if incurred by any other person, are a debt due to that person by the company.

- Interim liquidator 19. (1) If an application has been made to the Court for an order that a company be put into liquidation, the Court may, if it is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient for the purpose of maintaining the value of assets owned or managed by the company, appoint a named person as interim liquidator.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), an interim liquidator has the rights and powers of a liquidator to the extent necessary or desirable to maintain the value of assets owned or managed by the company.

- (6) If any question arises as to whether, on the date on which an interim liquidator was appointed, an act was done or a transaction was entered into or effected before or after the time at which the interim liquidator was appointed, that act or transaction is, in the absence of proof to the contrary, deemed to have been done or entered into or effected, as the case may be, after that time.

21. (1) On an application to the Court for an order that a company be put into liquidation, evidence of failure to comply with a statutory demand is not admissible as evidence that a company is unable to pay its debts unless the application is made within 30 working days after the last date for compliance with the demand.

Evidence and other matters

- (2) Section 20 does not prevent proof by other means that a company is unable to pay its debts.
- (3) Information or records acquired under section 57 of the Companies Act 2009 or, if the Court so orders, under section 62 of the Companies Act 2009, may be received as evidence that a company is unable to pay its debts.
- (4) In determining whether a company is unable to pay its debts, contingent or prospective liabilities may be taken into account.
- (5) An application to the Court for an order that a company be put into liquidation on the ground that it is unable to pay its debts may be made by a contingent or prospective creditor only with the leave of the Court; and the Court may give such leave, with or without conditions, only if it is satisfied that a prima facie case has been made out that the company is unable to pay its debts.

- (a) there is a substantial dispute as to whether or not the debt is owing or is due; or
- (b) the company appears to have a counterclaim, set-off, or cross-demand and the amount specified in the demand less the amount of the counterclaim, set-off, or cross-demand is less than the prescribed amount; or

(5) A demand must not be set aside by reason only of a defect or irregularity unless the Court considers that substantial injustice would be caused if it were not set aside.

(6) In subsection (5), “defect” includes a material misstatement of the amount due to the creditor and a material misdescription of the debt referred to in the demand.

(7) An order under this section may be made subject to conditions.

24. - (a) order the company to pay the debt within a specified period and that, in default of payment, the creditor may make an application to put the company into liquidation; or

Additional powers of Court on application to set aside statutory demand
